CHIEF-OF-POLICE LANNING DROPS DEAD - Bruce Lanning, for twelve years chief of police of Berwick, was stricken with a heart attack while hunting in Bradford County this morning about 7:40 o'clock and died a few moments later in the arms of his son-in-law Earl H Kemler.

The party had been hunting about twenty-five minutes when the death stroke came. Chief Lanning was walking in a level field as Kemler was about to enter a woods while Nathan Arey, the third member of the party, was about 100 feet away.

Kemler glanced about to see his father-in-law sag to his kees about 15 feet from him. Alarmed, he dropped his gun and ran over to clutch the falling figure. Death occurred in his arms a few moments later.

A minute before the fatal stroke, Chief Lanning had called to the others of the party to inquire about the dog which had disappeared on a chase. Kemler turned to answer him when he saw the officer sink to his knees. Previously Mr Lanning had complained of shortness of breath. He had been taking treatments for his heart for some time but his condition had not been thought serious. He was a hunting devotee and had spent many mornings in the woods since the hunting season opened. The party left Berwick at 4:40 o'clock this morning and went to the farm of Harry Knoll, a man known to many Berwick hunters, about seven miles below Wyalusing along the road to Dushore, in Wilmot Township, the southeastern corner of Bradford County.

Take Body to Farm House - The son-in-law loosened the clothing of the chief as the form was limp in his arms and with every indication that death had been practically instant, while Arey went to the farm house about 200 years away. A cot was secured and Mr Knoll, a farm hand, Arey and Kemler carried the lifeless body to the farm house.

Dr R H Person, of Athens, the coroner of Bradford County, was notified and came at once to the farm. His investigation gave the decision that death was due to a heart attack and that no inquest was necessary. Permission for the removal of the body was given and it was taken to an undertaking morgue at Wyalusing where undertaker J M Seriff will obtain the body this afternoon to bring it to Berwick.

Death of chief of police Lanning means for the town the loss of an officer whose efficiency had won not only local reputation but had placed him in high esteem by city and State Police officials throughout the state. Recognition in the state Chief of Police Association had been repeatedly given him and he served for years as chairman of the resolutions committee and had a voice in the annual sessions as one of the "older members" and respected figures in the body.

Berwickians with the shock of the loss that was expressed as the word spread, were quick to sense the fact that the town had lost an officer who had served them well.

The characteristics of his service were efficiency in crime prevention and detection with a judgment and ease in administering the law that has contributed notably to Berwick's remarkable record in lack of crime. Repeatedly, his counsel was sought by Captain Clark of the state police and he had a part in solving many crimes that were not directly within his jurisdiction but had a connection here.

One of the highest tributes to his long administration is the absence of even a hing of swaying from that which he viewed as his duty as an officer through favoritism or the semblance of the bribe. The thoroughness with which his cases were prepared brought repeated recognition in the courts.

Mr lanning's own private life was of the exemplary character that commanded respect, as churchman and in civic interest. While a resident of Briar Creek Township before the annexation of the North Berwick end to the borough, he served two terms as school director and part of the time as its secretary and as constable of the township for many years. In the recent Community Chest campaign he had an active part as a team member and had one of the best records as a solicitor.

Born near Reyburn in Union Township January 24, 1881, he was aged 53 years, nine months and twenty-eight days. His first position was that as a boy in the breaker at the West End Coal Company. His parents resided for a time in Berwick and Shickshinny but returned to Reyburn and Chief Lanning came from that place to Berwick thirty-three years ago to take employment with the American Car and Foundry Company.

He served as officer with the company for a number of years and it was from this position that he became chief of police of Berwick in 1922.

He was a member of the North Berwick Evangelical Church, of Berwick Lodge of Elks, Lodge #246 IOOF, and the State Chief of Police Association.

Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs Earl Kemler and Miss Mildred Lanning, both at home; his parents, Mr and Mrs T W Lanning, of Reyburn, three brothers, David, of Centre Township; Ernest, of Berwick; and Kinney of Roaring Brook; and two sisters, Mrs Isaac Warner, of Koonsville; and Miss Elizabeth Lanning, of Reyburn.

His parents some months ago passed their 66th wedding anniversary at ages of 87 and 85 years. Mrs Lanning two weeks ago today suffered a paralytic strike and her condition has since been serious.

The family has been prostrated by the sudden death and the sympathy of the community is extended to them.

Funeral services will not be arranged until the arrival of

His fellow officers, regular and special will be the pall-bearers.

Business men of the town will be represented by a delegation at the services as an expression of the esteem in which the officer was held.

Comments On Death - As news of the sudden death of Chief of Police Bruce Lanning yesterday morning was received in official police circles, messages of sympathy and tributes to his sterling character came from many of those officials with whom he was in close contact.

Following are some of these messages from official circles, showing the esteem in which Chief of Police Lanning was held:

Detective Dan McKelvey - Daniel T McKelvey, of Hazleton, former president Police Chiefs Association of Pennsylvania -- "I was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Chief of Police Bruce Lanning, who was my close personal friend since he assumed office over twelve years ago. I can only repeat what I have always said -- Bruce Lanning was the best police chief of any borough in the state of Pennsylvania."

Ranked As Expert Officer - Captain William A Clark, Commanding Officer, Troop B, Pennsylvania State Police, Wyoming Barracks - "Chief of Police Lanning was my friend for many years, and in my estimation ranked as an expert police official. It was with grief that I learned of his death in the midst of an active police life. We worked together on many matters, and he always cooperated in a very competent manner. In his passing, I can only say that I feel a personal loss that is shared by all under my command her at Wyoming."

Modesty and Efficiency - J Rolland Follmer, former Burgess and former assistant District Attorney -- "In the death of Chief of Police Bruce Lanning, Berwick has lost an officer whose modesty and efficiency ranked him far above the average in small communities in the state. It is also a personal loss that was heightened by the remembrance of a period of four years of close association. I repeat the statement made to me repeatedly by D T McKelvey, of Hazleton, who ranked him as the leading borough police chief of the state."

President Christian - Harry Christian, President Berwick Borough Council -- "Bruce Lanning was a competent police officer, an esteemed citizen and one who was behind every movement for the good of the community. I feel that in his death Berwick has suffered a great loss that is shared by all who knew him.

Coroner Ross - William A Ross, Columbia Conty Coroner -- "In the passing of Chief of Police Bruce Lanning, the town has sustained a distinct loss that is keenly felt by all who were thrown into official contact with him. I cannot help but express my high regard for him in all matters which I have seen him act while he held the office of chief of police, and my sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives and associates, who are left to mourn his untimely, death."

Knew How To Use Authority - C E Lenhart, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce -- "In the death of Chief of Police J Bruce Lanning, Berwick loses one of its most efficient and capable officials of all times.

"During the past several years, my work as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce placed me in almost daily contact with him.

"He was always ready and extremely anxious in his duty as ano officer to protect the public he served. He was never oppressive to the guilty. He well knew how to use his authority.

"When a local crime was committed, he seemed to sense whom to suspect. It was only then a matter of gathering sufficient evidence to convict. In this he seldom failed.

Esteemed by Fellow Officers - By Chief Burgess Arthur E Arndt -- "The passing of Chief of Police Bruce Lanning was a shock to this community. He was an exemplary citizen, loved his home town and loyally supported her institutions. He bore an enviable reputation as a police official, having served as Chief of Police of Berwick for twelve years and was also active in the State police circles. While attending the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association convention at Williamsport with him this summer I learned of his wide acquanintance and the esteem in which he was held by police officials throughout the State. In my brief association with him I learned to love him and admire his honesty, courage and unselfish devotion to duty.

Berwick has lost a loyal citizen and an efficient police official."

Wilkes-Barre Chief - Captain Eckhart, of Wilkes-Barre police, first vice president of the State Chief's Association, had a tele-type message broadcast throughout the state when he received word of the death of Chief Lanning. His comment follows: "Chief Lanning was a man whom I enjoyed as a friend and admired for his ability as an officer. He had a high standing among the chiefs of police of the state. Ever responsive to co-operation with other towns, a man of high personal qualities that won the friendship of his fellow workers, he was one of the type and character of officers that is a credit to the community that developed him and the state."

FOR 80 YEARS THEY'VE BEEN DOUBLING FUN by Brenda Hartman

They think they just may be the oldest living twins in Berwick, but other than that distinction, Myrtle Kishbaugh and Martha Kindred think of themselves as just ordinary folks.

The twins celebrate their 80th birthday tomorrow, simply and quietly, with friends and relation, just as they have been doing since their day of birth in 1905.

For Myrtle and Martha, being twins is not a curiousity, just a fact of life.

As they recall the memories of the past 80 years, their memories are twin.

Martha begins a sentence and Myrtle finishes it.

One laughs and the other smiles.

For she was there.

Actually, she was always there, says Myrtle.

"We went to the same school, the same church, we went everywhere together."

But they were not aware until about the third grade that they were any different than anyone else.

It was then they realized just how much fun being twins could be. Besides the usual antics of "fooling the teacher," the twins switched a boyfriend or two along the way at a church social, always admitting in the end what they had done.

Remembering, their faces glow like schoolgirls. You get the feeling these 80-ish-year young ladies figure they could still pull off a prank or two.

But once the trick was on them.

As girls they went shopping and Myrtle, thinking she spotted Martha at the other end of the store, waved. It was a rude awakening when she realized the person waving back was her own reflection in a mirror.

Never fooled was mom and dad, the late Fanny and Ernest Lanning, nor Myrtle and Mildred's three sisters and four brothers.

Being twins had its drawbacks at times.

The girls always dressed alike something they thought they had to do. This caused a problem when "I wanted my hair combed one way, and she another," said Martha. Going out any other way was just not acceptable. The habit is so strong that even today when they go out together, they dress the same.

Fourteen years old when the Depression hit in 1921, they vividly recall their father getting work papers for their birthday that year.

The sisters went to work at the Colonial Mill, working at various mills until retirement from Bloomsburg Mills at 62 years old.

"I never resented the work," said Myrtle, who religiously handed the paycheck over to mom. The hours were long and hard, often 10 a day, but not without the fun of confusing an employer or two. That is, unless they stood side by side at the skein.

Martha and Myrtle have lived within a few blocks of each other most of their life-long Berwick residency.

They share similar tastes but some only skin deep.

"She's quick to anger," says Myrtle, confessing, however, "I'm nastier." They never argue any more. The fights, when they did come, were "before we knew any better," said Martha.

Myrtle is the mother of three children, Louise Greenfield, Terry and Bill Trivilpiece. Mildred has two sons, Sterling and Robert Smith.

The twins have been "no big deal," they modestly admit. Tomorrow they will once again sit across the tabel to share birthday cake. They are ordinary people, but that's what makes Martha and Myrtle so unique. (Berwick News, Saturday, March 30, 1985)

Mr and Mrs Lanning have 46 grandchildren. An evening out for supper is planned by Mrs Gloria Baer and Mrs Madeline Lanning.

Article taken from the "Suburban News," Wednesday 26 July 1989, Volume 26, Number 36 - Local Mother of 17 Tells Her Unusual Story - Her Offspring Number 137 - Imagine being the mother of seventeen children! Just think of the food and clothing you would need for them all. Devota Lanning and her late husband Ernie are the parents of seventeen children, sixty-one grandchildren and fifty-nine great grandchildren! Their offspring number one hundred thirty-seven and like the "begots" of Biblical times, Devota and Ernie may be responsible for a good portion of the Muhlenburg to Berwick population, not to mention other parts of the United States.

The matriach named her children: "Lorraine Janusziewicz of Aston is 61; Eloise Benscoter of Hunlock Creek is 59; Donald Lanning of North Rose, New York if 58; Patricia Boyer of Berwick is 56; Wanda Chaffinch of Wilmington, Delaware is 55; Gloria Baer of Shickshinny is 53; Yvonne Farrell of Shickshinny is 52; Richard Lanning of Brandamoore is 51; Sandra Thorne of Shickshinny is 50; Edward Lanning of Channel View, Texas is 44; Robert Lanning of Hunlock Creek is 43 years old. Linda Fritz of Phillipsburg, New Jersey is 40. And then Raymond would be 38 years old. Deborah Kresge of Hunlock Creek is the youngest. She is now 36 years old." Devota Lanning herself just recently celebrated her 79th birthday on July 7.

"Some of my children were born in the hospital, some were born at home," noted Lanning. "My daughter Linda weighed 14 pounds at birth. Her one arm was broken during delivery. Deborah was the only baby to be delivered by Cesarean Section."

MORNING TILL NIGHT - According to Lanning, "I worked from morning to night! My husband Ernie worked in the mines and our children helped take care of the farm work. I baked six loaves of bread every day, except for Sunday and a loaf cake for lunch every day."

"We had a big garden every year and there were lots of fruit trees on our property. I would can 500 to 600 quarts of green beans, tomatoes, corn, peas, carrots, lima beans and jellies every year. We raised and butchered our own cows, pigs, chickens and ducks, so we never had to buy meat. We drank the milk from our cows and I would churn butter twice a week and also make cottage cheese," noted Lanning.

"We had a great big kitchen table with benches down both sides and chairs at each end. Everybody but myself would sit down at mealtime, when the children finished eating, I would sit down and eat. We also fed a lot of neighbor boys over the years," Lanning said.

PECK OF POTATOES - "I would peel a peck of potatoes for mashed potatoes and I remember making soup in a five gallon canning pot. For breadfast, my children ate cereal or Mother's Oats. Our chickens laid plenty of eggs, but, not one of the children were egg-eaters," she said.

"It seemed like I washed clothes from morning until night," laughed Lanning. "When we were first married, I would scrub clothes on a wash board. After a few years, we bought a wringer washing machine. We lived in Reyburn for awhile and when we moved to the farm in Muhlenburg, there was no electricity. Ernie had our neighbor, Mr Baer, run Electrical lines, so I could use the washing machine and my vacuum cleaner. That was back in 1943 and we had twelve children then."

THE KID'S ANTICS - "The children could amuse themselves and play by themselves. They did do a lot of silly things like jumping into the bushel basket which held dirty clothes on the stair-landing. Some of the children put Darlene in a cardboard box and threw her up on the roof of the barn," laughed Lanning. "Yvonne stuck her hand in the wringer washer once while I was washing. Instead of me tearing the washer apart, I just reversed the motor speed. I remember the children using an old car hood to sled down the hill with. Eddie cut his head on the car hood and they stuck his head in the icy pond to stop the bleeding. Curtis fell off of a horse and broke his arm. I took him to Muhlenburg Corners where we rode on one of Peter Harmon's buses to the Nanticoke Hospital."

"I never had any trouble feeding or clothing my children. They never wanted for anything," noted Lanning. "They all helped do the farm chores and pulled weeds in the garden. They would pick and sell strawberries and potatoes to help raise money to buy school clothes."

WOULD DO IT AGAIN - "I would have as many kids again if I could," stated Lanning. "I think the couples are foolish if they don't have one or two children, but it is up to each individual to decide. It isn't as hard today to support a family. Back then, you had to work and we didn't have welfare to fall back on."

HOLDS REUNIONS - "Every summer, we would go to Peter Wolfe's picnic grove at Sylvan Lake for a picnic. Now, for the past five years, we've been having a family reunion. Last year, there were sixty-three family members who attended," Lanning said. "The last time all seventeen children were together was in November 1983 when my husband passed away."

MAIL CARRIER RETIRES AFTER 30 YEARS SERVICE - Mr Donald Dodson, of Oakdale, reitred on November 17 as the rural mail carrier of Route 2 Hunlock Creek, after 30 years of service. A large collection of valuble gifts he has received since that date attributes to the fact he served the people just the way he expressed it to the writer, "I served my patrons the way I would have wanted to be served as a patron."

As we talked, he reminisced of the growth of his route over the period of time he was the carrier. He recalled, "I began carrier service on September 6, 1942 with a route that included 300 boxes in a drive of 46 miles. As of my retirement date, the route had grown to 549 boxes and the daily drive is now 57 miles."

The amount of dirt roads on the route has not shrunk as much as you might imagine with all the blacktopping of recent years. He had 17 miles of dirt roads on the original route while today it is down to 12 miles. About 4 miles of this was resurfaced recently in a section of Plymouth Township.

Mr Dodson pointed out "A significant sign of the build-up in patrons is a 4 mile section on Sorbertown Hill where 34 new residences have been built during the 30-years I served. I checked it out just a few days before I retired. Near Lake Silkworth the mobile home court added 17 boxes in recent years.

He said, "I used 27 cars in my term as a carrier, starting with a Ford and ending with a Chevrolet. In all I used 2 Fords, 2 Plymouths and 23 Chevrolets. Among them was one of those indestructible Model A Fords that I used during the war for winter months driving."

He said cars are not as well built today to take the rigorous mail carrying job as they were when he started his career.

Mr Dodson served under only two postmasters in his 30 years. Mr Stanley C Croop was head of the Hunlock Creek office when he began. He was succeeded by the present postmaster Mr Carl Englehart.

DOGS DISLIKE MAIL CARRIERS? - A humorous sidelight Mr Dodson talked of was the matter of dogs hating mail carriers. He said, "I know its a fact. I had one particular dog that paid no attention to me at a Lake Silkworth business place when I was there as a customer. When I went there with the mail, he was very unfriendly."

A dog also gave him a personal mark to remind him of his mail service. Mr Dodson recalled, "I had carried mail for 30 years and had never been bitten by a dog till about two weeks before I retired. I took a package to a home where the family was away and their dog got me good. He had not bothered me before, but I guess he figured I had no right on the porch when no one was at home."

Mr Dodson concluded, "I am deeply grateful to my patrons for their gifts and for their wonderful cooperation during all the years I carried mail for them. I enjoyed the work very much and it was their efforts on my behalf on many occasions that added to my enjoying the work. Their helpfulness was shown so often and in so many ways that it is impossible to remember any particular instances."

Even in his retiring Mr Dodson showed the concern that made him so beloved by his patrons. Due to his age he could have continued to carry the mail but chose to retire at this time, since his substitute for over 20 years was out of work due to flood damages to the Penn Central railroads trackage and the fact some of it may not be replaced.

Mr William Adams was the substitute and will temporarily become the regular carrier with the possibility of being named to the position. There are certain rules and regulations of the Postal Service that must be fulfilled before his appointment can be consumated.

Mr Dodson gave the reason for his concern, in part, by the fact that, "I always went to Florida for a month each winter when traveling was often the worst and he never complained, so I felt I owed him some consideration in this time of need on his part."

Mr Dodson has a teaching degree and taught school from 1939 through the Spring of 1941. He plans to use his travel trailer to see a lot of the United States and then may go back to teaching in a private school in the south.

He said this teaching job is not definite, but is being given very careful consideration by himself and the school. At his age (mid-50s) he says, "I am not ready for retirement."

State police termed the young men as "injured badly" and both were taken to the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital in the Sweet Valley Ambulance. At press time they remained patients there with Lanning listed in "fair" condition in the Intensive Care Unit following surgery. Loomis was also listed in fair condition being under observation and undergoing tests to determine the extent and nature of his injuries. The condition of the cars makes one wonder that either survived.

Trooper Leonard Peterson reported Loomis was making a right turn onto Route 118 from Ross Township Route 670 and had failed to see the approach of Lanning's 1966 Ford convertible.

Lanning was unable to avoid the Loomis car and hit it broadside. Loomis' 1968 Ford Mustang was struck at about the position of the dash on the driver's side. Both cars were demolished.

Each student nominated has been invited to participate in a one-day leadership seminar in September, and will be honored at an awards banquet, September 15th at the Holiday Inn Arena. A total of $1,000 in scholarships will be awarded to three winners of an essay contest. The local Youth Leader of the Year will compete for national scholarships.

STUDENT TAKES SNACK STAND FOR EDUCATION (1991): NEWARK VALLEY - While other college students wait on tables and punch a clock this summer, 20-year-old Michelle L Lanning worries about profit and paying suppliers.

Lanning, a Newark Valley resident who will be a senior at Pennsylvania State University this fall, has set up her own business this summer. She's the owner of Good N' Rich Ice Cream, an ice cream stand at Route 38 and Route 38A.

"I thought it would be fun to have my own little business. I'm going to have my own accounting practice someday so I thought this would be good practice," said Lanning, an accounting major.

"But being the owner means responsibilities, and being new to the ice cream business means learning by trial and error," she said.

One Sunday night, she ran out of most of the ice cream. Lanning said that the next time she ordered too much.

And she always faces the possibility of not bringing in enough money to cover the bills and payroll.

"I pray about it a lot," Lanning said.

Her father lends his support. Lanning said that when things seem overwhelming, he'll take out a calculator, run some figures through and show her business is fine. Then he'll give her a pep talk.

"It's been fun. I've enjoyed helping her with it," said her father, David A Lanning.

The hours can be grueling, she said. The stand, which offers 32 flavors of ice cream and a menu including beverages, hot dogs and pre-packaged dinners, is open from 11 am to 11 pm daily. Lanning works six days a week with a few hours off for a class she's taking at Tompkins-Cortland Community College. Two part-time employees and her parents and brother help her.

That schedule will force her to miss a long weekend this month in Washington, DC, and Virginia with her family.

Lanning's father suggested buying and running the ice cream business when she lost out on two jobs she was hoping to get. At first, Lanning said, she didn't want to because she was afraid she wouldn't make enough money to pay back the investment.

But her parents loaned her about $1,700 to buy into the business, and she opened in May. She said she'll pay it back in mid-August when she'll close to go back to school.

So far, business is good. "We've had the best weather we could have for ice cream," Lanning said.

Debbie L Ward comes in "about every other day" to buy ice cream for her three children. "What's best about the ice cream stand is the convenient hours," Ward said.

Micky and Jay's reside at 50 Elm Street, Newark Valley, New York 13811.

TIMES LEADER, Friday January 1, 1999: Kenny A Lanning was riding at the foot of a snow-packed hill behind a relative's home off state Route 118 when he apparently hit a tree around 9:20 am, said Sweet Valley Fire Chief Robert Walsh. Walsh said Lanning suffered "very bad head injuries." He was pronounced dead at the scene at 10:26 am by Dr Tanja Schneidereit, who arrived aboard Penn State Geisinger's medical helicopter. Lanning was a student at Hunlock Creek Elementary School. Debbie Blaine, the mother of one of his friends, described him as a "well mannered" boy who loved horses, baseball and bowling. street from Stacy Lanning's house. He said Kenny Lanning had the ATV for a long time. He would often see him riding it in a pasture by the home. "I'd usually see him riding up front by the horse fence," Heiser said. Lanning loved animals, especially horses and mules, said Clem Kaminski, leader of Cub Scout Pack 429 out of Hunlock Creek Elementary. Lanning belonged to the pack until last year. Kaminski said. "He was a free spirit. An aggressive boy, yet quiet," Kaminski said. "He was always willing to learn."
